NEWS LETTER

(JANUARY 1994 - JANUARY 1995)

A BIRD'S - EYE VIEW OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSEUMS

From January '94 - January '95.

The Madras Government Museum and its twelve District Museums have observed the Museum Week Celebrations during last year in January 1994 with packed educational programmes to focus the attention of the general public and students on the awareness, existence and usefulness of museums in Tamilnadu. Our Hon'ble Minister for Education and Culture, Prof.K.Ponnuswamy inaugurated the celebrations on 7th January 1994 in the Museum Theatre, Madras.

NOTABLE ADDITIONS:

The most notable additions to the collection at the Madras Museum are the acquisition of 57 copper plates (including two seals, belonging to Rajendra Chola period from Karanthai Tamil Sangam, Thattaiyur at a total cost of Rs.30 Lakhs, and also the new additions of 70 bronzes of 11th - 15th Centuries through the Treasure-Trove Act from Nagai-Quaide-Millet District. The other treasure trove acquisitions include 20 hoards of coins of different dynasties and a dozen hoard of jewellery items from various districts. A dozen portrait paintings of Thiru Lakshmi Ratan and ten neoliths from Kalrayon Hills were received as gifts from Mrs. Lakshmi Ratan, Kilpauk, Madras and Thiru K.Krishnamurthy, Cuddalore respectively.

Besides these antiquities, the natural science collections were strengthened with the addition of fresh specimens got from collection tours at Kanyakumari coastal areas, Ariyalur fossil bed and Salem hills by the respective Curators.

The cultural objects have been taken care of, as part of the museum activity. In the Chemical Conservation Laboratory, two paintings belonging to the Prince of Arcot, Madras, and a Tanjore panel painting belonging to Thiru Satyanarayana Sinha, Madras were repaired and restored. Conservation of bronzes and wood carvings were also taken up at Raj Bhavan, Madras.

DESIGNING AND DISPLAY IN GALLERIES:

Remodelling of showcases and redisplaying of objects in the Children's Museum, Geological and Zoological galleries at Madras were effected. Newly designed showcases were added up in the museums at Madurai, Kanyakumari and Krishnagiri. Renovation of anthropology and reptiles galleries in Pudukkottai and restructuring of sculpture gallery in Coimbatore were carried out. The Museums Department participated in the 8th World Tamil Conference by putting up its exhibition stall on Ancient Tamilagam during January 1995 at Thanjavur.
